

AbstractID: 8003 Title: AAPM Student Meeting

The student meeting is an opportunity for students to meet other students, enjoy a free breakfast, and learn about issues important to students of medical physics. At this year's annual meeting there will be a presentation on Medical Physics Residency Programs, as well as a panel discussion of recent graduates on different paths towards a career in medical physics.