

Lawmakers Move on 21st Century Cures Bill

A revised draft of the 21st Century Cures bill was recently released by the Senate Energy and Commerce Committee's leaders and a Subcommittee on Health hearing is scheduled April 30th. Among the goals of the bill are to modernize studies, boost NIH funding, support the development of precision and personalized treatments for patients, and improve data exchange among innovators, providers, researchers and patients.