Back by popular demand! The AAPM 2017 Night Out will again encourage you to meet your colleagues at the venue for light snacks and then make your way to one of the many restaurants in the area for dinner. Or dine first, then head over to the event, for something sweet to end your evening!

AAPM will take over the entire Denver Art Museum, with 70,000 works of art in its collection and 9 permanent collections on display including American Indian, Asian, European and American, modern and contemporary, pre-Columbian, Spanish Colonial, textile, Western American art and Architecture. For those who like to dance, Ponti Hall will showcase classic rock covers by the Kory Brunson Band.

Buses will depart from the corner of 14th and Welton Streets and run continuously between the Convention Center and Denver Art Museum until the conclusion of the event. If you decide to walk (.8 mile from the Convention Center), look for guides along the way. You will be directed toward the North Building.

Don’t forget your ticket, which is required for admission to The Denver Art Museum. This ticket is included in some registration categories. Tickets may also be purchased on-site at the AAPM registration desk.

Each adult Night Out ticket will include (1) drink ticket, redeemable for beer or a glass of wine. Please make your plans in advance and dine at a restaurant of your choice.
